Endorsed by Jamie Oliver, Kelly Bronze turkeys are free-range and raised from eggs on their own farm, the only farmers to do this in the UK. These birds live twice as long as standard turkeys and are dry-aged for at least 7 days, resulting in exceptional marbling that reduces cooking time by half. Each turkey comes in a presentation box with cooking and carving instructions, plus a complimentary meat thermometer.

Collection days for turkeys are Sunday 22nd, Monday 23rd and Tuesday 24th Dec.

The Mitchell family farm in Aughtertool, West Fife, and produce artisanal bacon and pork from locally sourced, outdoor-bred pigs. They care about what they do and that starts with ensuring the highest welfare standard for their pigs. They use traditional methods at their butchery, dry-curing their bacon and hand-linking every sausage.
